Applies sequencing skills	S

Jared has proved that he is a hard worker. For the weekly reading quizzes, he has averaged a 97% on vocabulary and an 85% on comprehension. In addition, he averaged a 95% on the phonics activities. Each night, Jared should read and be questioned on what he has read to check for understanding of the text. Right now, Jared is able to read 69 words per minute.

LANGUAGE ARTS

Uses capital letters correctly at the beginning of sentences	S
Uses ending punctuation correctly	N
Applies spelling skills to daily work	S
Spells assigned words correctly	S
Applies sequencing skills to story writing	N
Handwriting is legible	S

Jared is doing well on the weekly spelling tests. He averaged an 89% on the tests. He can work on writing in complete sentences. Often he does not know when to end a sentence. I would like him to work on writing more developed, detailed, and clear stories. All of his stories do not always have a beginning, middle, or ending.

MATH

Addition	S
Subtraction	S
Writing numbers to 300 by 1's, 2's, 5's, 10's	S
Problem solving skills	S
Patterning	N
Geometry	S

Jared has demonstrated mastery of the addition (97%) and subtraction facts (96%) by doing well on the timed test. He should begin to practice math facts to 18. One area that he needs to continue to work on is figuring out number patterns.

WORK SKILLS

Listens attentively	S
Follows directions	S
Works well independently	S
Works cooperatively with others	S
Completes assignments on time	S
Does work neatly	S
Assumes responsibility for homework	N

Jared is motivated to learn. I would like him to participate more during class discussions. In addition, it is important that Jared works on organizational skills. He has forgotten his homework several times.

SOCIAL SKILLS

Obeys classroom/school rules	S
Shows courtesy and kindness	S
Demonstrates self-control	S
Assumes responsibility for behavior	S

Jared displays positive behavior in school. He is very kind and helpful to children and adults. Jared always has a smile on his face.
